Mildred Fitch Family Life Center

First United Methodist Church
of Mesa

The Mildred Fitch Family Life Center (FLC) is a spacious multi-use facility. Built in 2004 on the campus of First United Methodist Church, The FLC is centrally located in the heart of downtown Mesa, across from the Mesa Arts Center.

The FLC is a beautiful facility with an impressive entryway and large reception station. This space is ideal for welcoming and directing large groups.

Athletics

The Nesbitt gym has 8,600 square feet of Taraflex sports flooring. The gym boasts retractable net for 3 volleyball courts. Basketball may be played on the regulation court or two practice courts.

Men's and women's restrooms are both equipped with showers and lockers.

Meetings and Events

The Patterson and Dobson multipurpose rooms are well suited for holding meetings, classes or conferences. The Rice Music Room has a Steinway piano and built-in risers. This room is ideal for choral setting, musical recital or classroom style lecture. All meeting rooms have phone and Internet access.
